Proverbs 3:5, 6

Amplified Bible (AMP)

⁵Lean on, trust in, and be confident in the Lord with all your heart and mind and do not rely on your own insight or understanding.

⁶In all your ways know, recognize and acknowledge Him, and He will direct and make straight and plain your paths.

Past

Rev. Joseph and Helen Sprowl have been active in Christian ministry since 1979. In 1984 they accepted the call to pastoral ministry and served in Michigan, Kansas, Texas and Ohio.

The year 2006 brought change as they resigned from their church in Ohio and moved to Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

In March they accepted the position as Student Housing Directors at Rhema Bible Training Center (R.B.T.C.), and Joe served as an adjunct professor in 2007-2008.

Present

In 2010 God brought change as the Sprowls sensed the Lord speaking to them about returning to Ohio and preparing for a traveling ministry as teachers to the body of Christ.

Our heart and vision is not to build a ministry, but to achieve a continual active role in building God's kingdom on earth, with special emphasis on the local Church.

Future

Their twenty-two years of pastoral ministry has deepened within them a love for the local church. Their heart and desire is to be a strength and support to pastors by imparting God's wisdom to believers.

Joe and Helen have a combined sixty-six years of varied ministry experience. They are thrilled at the prospect of ministering to the entire body of Christ and being a strength and support to pastors and local churches.
